PNHB President's Message:

Welcome to PNHB's Sound Waves concert. Thank you for coming out to support our members, many of which are new to our organization this year. We have been working hard under the guidance of our wonderful coaches and conductors. Please make yourselves comfortable. We are looking forward to performing for you and we wish you all the best this holiday season.

Greetings PNHB Members!

I would like to introduce myself. I am Room 304, once unemployed, now, your PNHB Music Library, located at the summit of Mount PCVS, 65 stairs above parking lot level.

Within my walls, behind a door with one cantankerous doorknob, I protect 85 Banker Boxes, the "Brinks of my music community". They, in turn, protect their Library Envelopes of music scores which remain, patiently, on call for their next Band assignment. The VIP section, up front, is comprised of our 30 Master Set Guardians, which bask in the importance of their role, "Foundation of Your Music".

They are our treasures, worth their weight in gold. I provide an organized work space for your Librarian Team who keep my LEs tidied up and in Score order.

When the Conductor's make their Band choices, this industrious group, with the backup of a Minolta Copier, erasers, tape, daubers AND the patience of Job, makes sure that those of my charge: proud to have been chosen, represent your Library with dignity.

I am honoured to protect your music and value the enjoyment, the learning and the fellowship which you derive from my being a part of your musically enriched journey.

Thank you,
 Room 304, Your Music Library

JUBILEE BAND

The GLOUCESTERSHIRE WASSAIL Wassailing is when you go door to door singing a song with a group of your closest friends, and the only way to make the group stop singing is by providing them with refreshment in the form of a very strong beverage. This is a rousing piece about that. SEE AMID the WINTER'S SNOW This is a beautiful, underperformed carol. This is a lovely arrangement of it.

Justin Hiscox

MAR Y CIELO (SEA and SKY), is a tuneful and memorable pasodoble written for young bands. With its vibrant harmonies and melodic lines, this piece is a perfect introduction to Spanish-style marches. An EVENING with the MASTERS, includes selections from Haydn's "Emperor" String Quartet, Brahms' Lullaby, and Mussorgsky's Great Gate of Kiev. JUBILANT SKY FANTASY is a fun, upbeat piece meant to bring joy and liveliness to both the performer and the listener.

Sal Castiglione

ALLEGRO BAND

SPANIA is a lively Spanish march that evokes the swirling capes and dance-like strutting of the toreadors of old, with a dash of flamenco for added flair. Enjoy!

Ben Jackson

HOMEWARD BOUND is a very popular choral piece. It has been arranged for band by Brent Karrick. It is both a simple and elegant melody. McGinty wrote PELL'S POINT about a battle of the same name during the American Revolutionary War. In it, a small group of men saved a whole army in their struggle for freedom. HYMN to FREEDOM celebrates another kind of battle for freedom. This battle for equality is not over but we can live in hope. DO YOU HEAR WHAT I HEAR? is a popular song sung at Christmas time. It is arranged for band by Jerry Nowak. The melody is passed around the band with bell sounds following it.
